What a miner would very properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sties, Sore Eyes, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effect matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt, through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is a poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, languor, and wearloess—often lightly spoken of as "only spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw of the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be added by a thorough blood-purifying medicine; and nothing else is so effective as What a miner would very properly term

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

- which is sufficiently powerful to expetite from the system even the taint of Moreditary Scrofula.

 The medical profession indorse Aven's Earsaparalla, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-State Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, justing good."

DECATUR, ILLINOIS, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1885.

Discoveries in the Yellowstone National Among the arrivals in the city from the north yesterday was Mr. G. L. Henderson, one of the superintendents of the Yellowstone National Park, who has resided in the park since 1882. During that period he has made many valuable researches and discoveries His investigations in that portion of the park lying in the forks of the Firehole River, south of Marshall's Hotel, were especially important. The dis coveries made in the park last year are considered of especial value and imortance, both from their extent and haracter. Mr. Henderson, replying

"The whole of last November and the first half of December was so fine in the Geyser basin that a party, consisting of myself, Assistant Superintendent W. J. Weimer, and George W. Marshall, were enabled to make the most careful search that had ever been made in hat region of hot springs, spouting geysers and mud volcanoes.
"What the old guide book designate as the Lower Geyser Basin contains over a thousand objects of special in terest, not over three of which have been named or even noticed, and a best the whole was condensed into a few lines or a single paragraph, and for the reason that it was both a terra incognita and innominata.

"The Chemical Basin, of which there are three divisions, contains vast bowls or basins of decomposed rock, pulverized and in a liquid, jelly-like form, of every shade and color, and so hot that it would be instant death to any living thing which had the misfortune to slip lown the oily walls into one of thes eething abysses.

"The most remarkable of these boil-ing paint bowls I named Lindren's Garden, in honor of Baron von Lindren, of Amsterdam, who, during his visit t the National Park last October, was the first to observe and to sketch the man velous floral forms that rise incessantly and bloom a brief moment and then fade away, to be succeeded by a never-ending and ever-varying display of lilies, roses, sunflowers. The kaleidoscopic floral morphology is created on the surface of a thick cream-colored paint in a bowl thirty feet in diameter Every flower form is well defined and is

"This basin lies south of Chemical Basin and is even more wonderful though in another way. It contains over three hundred miniature moun tains, each of which sends out pulls o steam, and several of them are active mul volcanoes. One of these opened at the top like the jaws of a building, and there were live successive eruptions of white lava sent up vertically about three feet, when the opening closed with a snap, after which the lava slowly trickled down the sides of the mountain and soon hardened into a crust like dry putty. Another one close by had an eruption, sending up at each discharge, a few seconds apart, small marble-shaped balls, most of which fell back into the crater. "On the west bank of the Firehold

River an active geysersent up every fit een or tweny minutes a volume of boil ng water about ninety feet high. The rater to the depth of thirty feet wa ined with a series of skull-like knobs ranged in rows as if a phrenologist had been collecting a cabinet of craniums. There were skulls of every form and size, from that of an infant to a giant's in size, and from that of an idiot to a Bacon in form.

the river is a most singular looking pool containing a coarso, black sand. From some inexplicable cause this black sand rises like a huge bubble and falls back, leaving the water for an intant turbid, after which it becomes as elear as crystal. Each succeeding globe becomes a larger until the seventh, which bursts with a report like the crack of a whip. The looker-on instantly makes a step backward until he becomes accustomed to this pugnacions manner of coming to a climax. This geyser suggests its own name, the in spite of which it became purer and whiter. It was named Mephistopheles and Marguerite. - after its test of many years, should be an assurance, even to the most skeptical, that it is really meritorious. Those who have used HALL'S HAUR RENEWER KNOW that used HALL's HAIR RENEWER KNOW that it does all that is claimed.

 It causes new growth of hair on bald heads—provided the hair tolkeles are not dead, which is seldom the case; restores natural color to gray or faded hair; preserves the scalp heathful and clear of dandruft; prevents the hair fulling off or changing color; keeps it soft, plant, listrous, and causes it to grow long and thick.

Entered at the Post Office at Decatur, Illinois WEDNESDAY EVE., JUNE 10, 1885.

THE Democrats in Chicago and throughout all northern Illinois are again in the depths of sorrow. The President yesterday removed "Long Jones," or rather appointed his suc cessor, as marshal for the northern district in the person of Frederick H. Marsh, of Ogle county, but the wormwood and gall to the Bourton heart is the suspicion that the appointment is in deference to the wishes of Senator Logan, who had a long interview with the president on Monday. The rock-rooted and mountain-buttressed Bourbons mournfully realize that the change is only from one Logan man to another, and their wailings are pitiful to hear. They paraphrase the immortal remark of the gentle l'iannigan at Chicago in 1880, as they bellow out

THE defeat of the Gladatone ministry, and its subsequent resignation, which events are just now creating a profound sensation in England, was upon a side issue, the proposition being to place an additional tax upon spirits and beer. It was not opposition to an increase of taxation, per se, that brought about the defeat of the government, but hostility to an endorsement of the policy which made additional taxation necessary. Therefore, the overthrow of Mr. Gladstone means opposition to the conduct of the Soudan war and the Egyptian campaign, opposition to the policy of the government in the Afghan affair and the complications with Russia, coupled with a determination upon the part of the Irish members to rebuke the ministry for its position with reference to the "Crimes Act," which the Parnellites denounce as iniquitous. Whether the Tory party, upon which will now rest the onus of forming a new ministry and formulating a different policy on all these questions, can do better than Mr. Gladstone and his followers have done, remains to be

He's "got 'em again." We refer to our cotemporary of the Democratic organ. We cannot even mention the fact of an applicant for office fortifying himself with a letter of recommendation from Jeff Davis, without having our usually mildmannered neighbor jump on us with both feet, as it were, and spitcfully intimate that no Republican ought to be willing to hold office under an administration that could be influenced by such sort of backing. In several other places in his paper this morning our neighbor gives evidence of very considerable mental as scaled they will be taken into the disturbance on the post office matter. Treasury cash and we humbly crave his pardon for the reference that seems to have excited him so much. We would not for the world say anything to start him off into one of those tantrums which seriously threaten to drive him "off his base," but what is a body to do? One cannot mention even the arrival and departure of the mails without being in danger of turning our neighbor's thoughts toward the post office, and then away he goes into his oft-repeated soug about Republicans holding office under a Democratic administration, offensive partisanship in clerks, and the various changes on that tune. Like poor Dick Swiveler, we can't travel on that street anymore; it is blockaded. We shall be compelled to perambulate some other highway, so to speak, to talk upon some other topic than the post office.

politicians in town-and there are quite a number-were many of them thrown into the wildest state of excitement yes terday by the appointment of Fred II. Marsh as Marshal of the Chicago Dis trict, to succeed "Long" Jones. This is the end of a long strugglo between the Harrison and Morrison factions over the Marshalship. The Harrison people at along have been working for William J. McGorigle, of Chicago, but it was not known who Morrison and his friends inat the president, "What are you dorsed. Mr. Morrison, who is in town, said when he heard of the appointment that he was well enough pleased with it. Mr. Marsh was his friend, but he had never urged Marsh's appointment for this particular place. The appointment of Marsh burst like a dynamite bomb among McGorigle's Chleago friends, and many of them are outspoken in their denunciation of the administration.
Major VanPelt, Chairman of the Cook County Democratic Committee, was perhaps the most vigorous in his criticisms. and is reported to have used very strong anguage without any regard for nicety of expression. An evening paper reports the follow ng interview with Mr. Van Pelt, at Willard's, to-day, soon after the announce-ment of Mr. Marsh's appointment: "Mr. Van Pelt said that the blank administration might go to blank; that they ward in Chicago when the election came. He said he represented 65,000 votes, the Cook County Democracy, and from this out they would work against the admin-istration. He declared open war and wanted everybody to know it. He meant open war and Cleveland would see who would win. We are the Democrats who do all the work; who spend our money who poll the words, and who earry elec-tions. What do we get? Saubbed. Re publicans and suckers can see the Presi-dent and talk with him for hours; we can't have a word with him. We can do Every appointment that man has made has gone to some sucker. There is not an office at his disposal I would have, but I am going to stand by my friends." Bids Accepted.

Washington, D. C., June 10 .- The Treasury Committee on distinctive paper has submitted its report to Secretary Manning, and It has been approved by him. The report recommends that the silk fibre be dispensed with, and that one Instead of two sick threads be used; that the paper shall be facioused in weight, improved in quality, and glaced on both sides. Interesting Gossip About General Grant

New York, June 10 .- The Commercial

Advertiser yesterday published some interesting gossip about General Grant and his literary methods. It describes him as completely dominated by his desire to finish his book, that he may leave it as a legacy to his family. He sometimes wakes up in the night, calls for a light, jots down a remembrance and then goes to sleep again. He stops in the middle of to sleep again. He stops in the middle of a conversation to record a reminiscence. He was recently asked: "What about the story of the surrender of General Lee's sword?" "I didn't take his sword," replied the General, "because I didn't think it would be right. Nothing was said or thought of it." "It is usual to take the sword is it not?" "Yes; but I would not do it in that case."

To the writer of this article the General conversation.

To the writer of this article the Gen-so large that the physicians can not ex-amine it except by feeling it. He can not open his mouth wide enough for them to lock far into it unless with great pain.

It was particularly unfortunate, says the writer, that General Badeau, when General Grant was thought to be dying, should have al-lowed the impression to exist that he

THE CATTLE STEALING BUSINESS. A Notorious Horse-Thief Arrested-His Gang to Be Annihilated.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., June 10 .- Dee Harris, the notorious leader of a gang of horse-thieves who are operating in West Texas, was captured by Captain Smith, of the State Rangers, and brought in and surrendered yesterday to the Sheriff of on the county. There are thirteen separate indictments hanging over Harris, the average sentence under which aggregate about two hundred years' imprisonment. When Harris was antured he was on the eve of shipping ifty head of stolen horses to Kansas City. The horses were found in the took nens of the International Railway Company. Within the large territory known as Crockett and Pecos Countles, a known as Crockett and Pecos Countles, a strong band of cattle thieves have been plundering the big ranches for the past ten years. It has been recently learned that they have organized with a view of going into the cattle-stealing them to north Texas and shipping to Kan as City and St. Louis, tjust as regula, cattle-owners do. The ranch owners in Crockett County have begun an open war on this gang. The Sheriff in open war on this gang. The Sheriff of Valverde County responded to a summons Monday, and with a posse of fitty men has started for Creckett County to lake a hand in the capture, or innihilation of the catire band. In their ast raid, eight days ago, the thieves ran if 110 head of three year-olds. These cattle are driven into the hilly country on the Rio Grande, from whence, by circuitous routes, they are driven North. Some heavy fighting and killing is anticipated from that section of Texas in a few days.

The members of the Presbyterian Sabbath school had a gay time at Oakland Park yesterday. The pleasant grounds were alive with big and little folks until late in the evening, and all left feeling better for having spent the day beneath the shade of the many trees. Dinner was served upon tables in the southwest part of the Park. The day was spent in boating, swinging, daring glides upon the ilying machine, pitching quoits, roller ekating on the smooth floor of the large building, and two croquet sets afforded pleasant amusement. The picnic was a huge success, the Park affording conveniences that no other grounds can offer.

This promises to be a remarkably good sea on for crops. Drought, that much-to-be teared calamity of a new, unbroken country, is not causing any anxiety in this section at present. It the farmors had ordered the conther it could not give better satisfaction. Here in the hills (so called) we are especially favored, being only a few miles from the lakes of the Military and Indian Reserves, and consequently getting a beavier rainfall than the; have in the valleys. Even it this were not so, we can stand drought better than they of the valley. The bills retain monsture so inuch better than the low lands beyond. It soems incredible, too, as the soil is so mellow and loans that one would think the rain would sink clear through and pertules some of those des ort plateaus of Western China.

neglected to strike my name off the roll of active members. For a number of years I was quite active as a Communist. I would have been more ac-tive, but I had conscientious scruples against being active in anything then.

While you may be perfectly sincero in your belief that the great capitalists like Mr. Gould and Mr. Vanderbilt should divide with you, you will have great difficulty in making it perfectly clear to them. They will probably demur, and delay, and hem, and haw, and procrastinate, until finally they will get out of it in some way. Still I do not wish to throw cold water or ists look favorably on the plan, I will cheerfully co-operate with them. You go and see what you can do with Mr. Vanderbilt, and then come to me. You go on at some length to tell me how the most of the wealth is in the hands of a few men, and then you attack these men and refer to them in a wa

You may say to Nemesis, if you please, that I have adouble-barrel shotgun standing at the head of my bed every night, and that I am in the Nemesis business. You also refer to the fact that the sleuth-hounds of eternal justice are camped on the trail of the pampered millionaire, and you ask us to avaunt. If you see the other sleuth-hounds of your society within a week or two, I wish you would say to them that at a regular meeting of the millionaires of this country, after the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved, we vote almost unanimously to discourage any sleuth-hound that we found camped of our trail after ten o'clock p. m. Slenth hounds who want to ramble over our trails during office hours may do so with the utmost impunity, but after ten o'clock we want to use our trails for other purposes. No man wants to

I tried it awhile, but my effort-were futile. The effect of my great struggle seemed to be that men's hearts grew more and more stony, and my pantaloons got thinner and thinner of the scat till it seemed to me that the world never was so cold. Then I made some experiments in manual labor. As I began to work harder and sit down less, I found that the world was not so cold.
